

Delegation from Kyonggi University visiting LSU on January 14, 2010

Following a visit from Consul General Yun-soo Cho in December 2009 a high-ranking delegation from Kyonggi University, Suwan campus was visiting LSU on January 14, 2010. President Dr. Ho-joon Choi together with Dr. Hun Dae Lee, Dean for International Affairs and Director Young Duk Kim, Office of International Affairs, had the opportunity to tour LSU campus and discuss opportunities for collaborations ranging from student exchange programs to joint research projects. The partnership was officially documented with signing a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU). Both universities will start working on establishing a student exchange program enabling students to visit and learn at the partner universities. Sending and hosting foreign students and faculty will help building strong personnel relationships critical for any successful exchange program. Areas of interest include language, culture, business, and research in engineering and basic science.

Dr. Astrid Meget, Executive Vice Chancellor and Provost of LSU and Dr. Ho-joon Choi, President of Kyonggi University (sitting) during the MOU signing ceremony surrounded by members of both delegations (from left to right, standing: Director Young Duk Kim, Dr. Hun Dae Lee, Dr. Harald Leder (LSU/ISO), Dr. Jost Goettert (LSU/CAMD), VC Dr. Lakshman Velupillai (LSU/ISO), Dr. Doo-Youn Cho (LSU/Vet Medicine), Dr. Yoonyoung Jin (LSU/CAMD)).

Interested in this opportunity?

Contact Dr. Jost Goettert, 225-578-8996 or jost@lsu.edu.